Dear Mr. Mirza,

Regarding the forthcoming visit of H. the Maharaja of Travancore to Bangalore, nec sary. action as indicated in your letter No. C 200 of the 16th May 1921 is being taken. A regards posting of an officer on special dut it has struck me that it is not necessary to appoint a full time officer for this work an that it would be sufficient if a capable officer of standing is directed to attend the Maharaja's camp twice a day and attend to th needs. Mr. B.S. Ranoji Rao, Chief Officer the Bangalore City Municipality would do for this work and the President, Bangalore City Municipality, is agreeable to his being entru ed with this work. If His Highness approve of this, I shall have the orders issued acco ingly.

Yours sincerely,

D E W A N.
